Workshops

Choir Survival Workshops

These back up the Survival of your Choir books and are held around the country for individual or groups of choirs, tackling very real issues facing choirs such as recruitment, audience development, funding, etc. These are tailor made to the needs of your choir and have had amazingly successful results , they include a powerpoint presentation that has specific information and advice for the individual choir.

Costs for 2009/10 are £95. half day and £180 per day plus travel,(charged at 29p per mile)

Join the ever growing list of choirs that have been visited includes Bradford Festival Choral society, Kendal Choral Society, New Mill Male Voice Choir, Paddock Wood Choral society, Birmingham ChoralUnion, Bishop Auckland Choral society, etc etc

'Using just one of your tips attracted us 16 new members!'

'We would obviously recommend your workshops to other choirs as we can already see the success from putting your ideas into practice'.

'I now have a 24 point action plan covering publicity, recruitment etc. Thanks it was great'

Choir Revival Workshops

These tackle the musical side of choir work, tackling and introducing new repertoire, breathing problems, diction, tone production , singing behind the words, using movement in music etc... in fact anything that makes a choir tick, presented in a down to earth and humorous way These are very popular, fees as above.

Recent choirs have included Durham Choral Society, Lea valley singers, Stokesley Choral Society, Billingham Choral Society and NAC Groups in the Midlands .

'We all benefited from this experience greatly.... Great fun, instructive, inspiring, coached us to produce a good sound.... Really enjoyed it'

And from a conductor:

'Thank you very much for last week's rehearsal. ... What more can I say apart from ... come back again!!'

Richard Brice – Conductor Durham Choral Society
